
THERE WAS A GOOSE

There was a Goose in Syracuse
And full of fun was he;
He met a Clown and bought his gown
And thought a Clown he'd be.

Verse by L. Frank Baum.
Music by Alberta N. Hall.
Pictures by Wm. W. Denslow.

COPYRIGHT 1900 by
The George M. Hill Co.
CHICAGO NEW YORK

SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH
MUSIC ALBUM: SUPPLEMENT TO THE
ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH
SUNDAY, JULY 22ND
1900

THERE WAS A GOOSE.

There was a Goose in Syr - a - cuse, And full of fun was he, And

Cres.

full of fun was he; He

Dim. p

met a Clown and bought his gown, And thought a clown he'd be, And Cres.

thought a Clown he'd be.

But for his jokes the lit - tle folks Had ver - y lit - tle use, Had

Cres.

ver - y lit - tle use; And Dim.

p

when the Clown danced up and down, They thought he was a Goose! They Cres.

thought he was a Goose!

But for his jokes
the little folks
Had very little use;
And when the Clown
danced up and down
They thought he was a Goose!

LOOK FOR ANOTHER FATHER GOOSE MELODY
NEXT SUNDAY.